7. County Warden's Welcome and Remarks

Warden McNamara welcomed the members of County Council, Administration and members of the public and delivered the following greeting:

It has been inspiring over the last 19 months to watch our dedicated County of Essex staff going above and beyond while continuing to enhance their skills.

Renée Renaud is one of those staff members. She is the assistant director of care and infection prevention control at Sun Parlor Home. I can't imagine a more challenging position during the pandemic.

Yet, while she has been shouldering these responsibilities, Renée completed an intensive leadership training program. Not only did she pass, she received the highest mark for her case study. As a result, AdvantAge Ontario has recognized her with the Donna Rubin Leadership Program Award.

Congratulations Renée! We are proud of your accomplishment.

You and your colleagues at Sun Parlor Home do such an outstanding job and make such a difference in the lives of residents and their families. No wonder you were named runner-up in the Best Nursing Home category in the Windsor Star's Best of YQG Awards.

I want to share just two of the many positive comments residents made recently about the excellent care they receive at Sun Parlor.

"The staff are always so busy but are so nice," says one.

Another resident says: "I was in other homes before coming to (Sun Parlor Home) and this is by far the best one."

Thank you, Sun Parlor Home staff, for all you do!

The staff at Essex-Windsor EMS are also to be commended for your tireless work on the front lines. On top of the measures you are taking to deal with the pandemic, you are seeing the number of calls you are responding to increase to pre-pandemic levels.

We will hear more about this from Chief Bruce Krauter later this evening, but we would be remiss if we didn't first salute you for being true heroes in this health crisis.

We also want to congratulate our 14 new EMS recruits! Welcome to the team Angelo, Andrew, Bailey, Courtney, Claudio, Charlie, Dylan, Erica, Erica, Irvan, Jenna, Mackenzie, Ryan and Sara. We are excited to have you aboard.

New staff members bring fresh ideas and approaches that help us improve services to the residents of Essex County. Diana Radulescu joined us this year as the county's active transportation coordinator. She is the driving force behind a contest challenging us to use motorized vehicles less this month.

It's called the Rethink Your Drive Contest. To enter, all you have to do is walk, ride a bike or use some other form of active transportation instead of driving a car for short trips in Essex County. You can find out about the prizes and how to enter by going to the County of Essex website or the CWATS Twitter, Facebook and Instagram pages.

We can all benefit from the exercise we get from rethinking our drive, and it's a great way to reduce our greenhouse gas emissions. So, get moving and get outdoors to enjoy our fine fall weather this month. There's nothing quite like Autumn in Essex County.

Minutes from the July 6, 2021 Essex-Windsor Solid Waste Authority Board Meeting, Mayor Aldo DiCarlo, Chair

Aldo DiCarlo mentioned that the high value of recyclables has provided financial advantages and if the trend continued the increased revenue would provide an opportunity to offset some of the cost of the current year's budget.

He advised that the Food and Organic recycling processes continued to be researched. And that once additional details on the Provincial Policy guidelines were available, the Authority would be able to proceed with the required decisions. He further advised that the Authority Board had requested that EWSWA Administration make a presentation at County Council as well as at the local Council meetings to provide updates when appropriate.

11.3 Land Acknowledgement Statement

Report number 2021-1006-CCS-R08-MB, Land Acknowledgement Statement, dated October 6, 2021 from Mary Birch, Director of Council and Community Services/Clerk

Mary Birch presented the report to Council recommending the adoption of a land acknowledgement statement which would be read at Council meetings and other County of Essex events.

It was explained that many government offices and schools have implemented Land Acknowledgement statements as an early step in the Reconciliation process. County Administration reviewed and researched many adopted statements from other local organizations and consulted with the Caldwell First Nations on the development of the statement.

Ms. Birch also informed Council that in addition to including the Land Acknowledgement Statement in meeting procedures, Administration intended to include staff training through the Canadian Centre for Diversity and Inclusion in the 2022 budget.

204-2021

Moved By Marc Bondy

Seconded By Nelson Santos

That the Essex County Council adopt the following Land Acknowledgement Statement, as a living document, open for revisions for one year to allow for feedback and advice regarding its ongoing use:

We (I) begin by acknowledging that the land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Three Fires Confederacy of First Nations, comprised of the Ojibway, Odawa and Potawatomie Peoples. To recognize the land is an expression of gratitude to those whose territory you reside on, and a way of honouring the Indigenous people who have been living and working on the land from time immemorial. We value the significant historical and contemporary contributions of local and regional First Nations and all the Original Peoples of Turtle Island.

11.4 Essex-Windsor EMS 2020-2021 Response Experience

Report number 2021-1006-EMS-R007-BK, Essex-Windsor EMS 2020-2021 Response Experience, dated October 6, 2021 from Bruce Krauter, Chief, Essex-Windsor Emergency Medical Services

Chief Bruce Krauter presented the report to Council covering EMS operations for the period of January 2020 to September 2021. The information in the report was generated through data collected from Electronic Patient Care Records platform and open data sources such as the Windsor Essex County Health Unit, Critical Care Services Ontario, Ministry of Health databases and the 2018 EWEMS 10-year Master Plan approved in 2019. He explained that, referencing numerous sources of information allowed EWEMS to make sound changes and recommend enhancements. He noted there was an error in the total municipal percentages in the Table on Page 3 of his report.  (Note: Table has been corrected on archived version of October 6, 2020 Agenda)*

Chief Krauter explained that COVID-19 lockdowns contributed to lower call volume and hospital utilization in early 2020, but once restrictions eased in 2021, challenges presented by increased call volume, resource utilization and off load delays returned and included other pressures not felt in the early waves of the pandemic such as healthcare backlog, decreased capacity in hospitals and rates of infection that fluctuate daily.

Chief Krauter mentioned that Ministry of Health response targets had been difficult to meet in 2021, but that scenario was being experienced in the sector across the Province. He explained that, to mitigate challenges EWEMS partnered with neighbouring communities and allied agencies for mutual aid and tiered response to provide adequate response.

He indicated that Ambulance offload delays continued to be a challenge, but EWEMS utilized diversion protocols with the communication centre and hospitals to ensure all patients were receiving the right care, at the right time and at the right place. Contributing factors to offload delays included decreased capacity at hospital, increased call volume and an increase of emergency room walk ins. He explained that the increase of emergency room walk ins was due to the lack of access to primary care physicians, as a result of reduced open office hours. He advised that the new data charting system implementation impacted the speed of flow when initially introduced, but that system was working well now.

Chief Krauter stated that the 10-year Master Plan had offered numerous recommendations and milestones with a goal of providing an efficient and effective service within the community. He advised that since the last report to Council, funding for the Community Paramedicine program had been received and that team was active providing care to palliative patients awaiting long term care at home. As well, last year EWEMS activated their Mental Health and Addiction Response Team (MHART) who connect citizens with the right support resources.

He explained that the redeployment of staff was completed earlier in the year following recommendations provided by ORH in the Master Plan. He noted that the redeployment process was originally planned for 2020 and then was rescheduled due to COVID-19. ORH had recommended adjusting the schedule of ambulances to follow call volume trends. He stated that maintaining staffing complements was an issue being experienced across the healthcare sector. Chief Krauter explained the Province had offered financial support to many sectors to mitigate this issue but the challenge of finding staff to do the work remained.

205-2021

Seconded By Tom Bain

That Essex County Council receive Report number 2021-1006-EMS-R007-BK regarding the Essex Windsor EMS 2020-2021 Response Experience and Service Delivery Impacts.

13.2 County Road 31 and Hwy 3 Intersection
