

The Essex and Kent Scottish

THE SCOTTISH BORDERERS FOUNDATION
Official Foundation of The Essex and Kent Scottish

The service.

The sacrifice.

Our duty to honour it.

The beach at Dieppe, August 19, 1942

It fell to them
To defend our Values and freedoms

SEMPER PARATUS

In our nation's hours of greatest need, The Essex and Kent Scottish gave it their all

- Over 200 years of service
- From colonial border wars through world wars and Afghanistan missions
- Defending what all of us today hold dear

Liberation of Groningen, Netherlands, April, 1945

It falls to us,
as a community,
to honour their courage

SEMPER PARATUS

The Government funds only a limited portion of our commemorative initiatives

- Many regimental activities not funded by governments
- Reliance on individual donors to defray costs for commemorative activities is not sustainable
- Fundraising Campaign launched to fund these important initiatives in perpetuity.

Protectors of our freedoms and values, 1882

Our
fundraising goal is $600,000

SEMPER PARATUS

Your support will allow us to sustain our Foundation's capital base in perpetuity

- Contributions will be added to the capital base of The Scottish Borderers' Foundation
- Goal: maintain it in perpetuity, at a sustainable level
- The interest earned over time will fund a variety of important commemorative initiatives.

Major F. A. Tilston VC

They never hesitated;
They did what had to be done

SEMPER PARATUS

We offer a variety of ways for donors to show their support

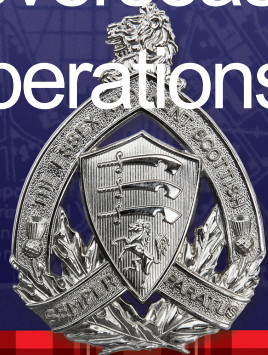

- Annual installments over five years
- One-time gifts and gifts in kind
- Testamentary bequests
- Gifts of appreciated investments

Canadian soldiers in Afghanistan

The regiment remains active in domestic and overseas operations.

SEMPER PARATUS

The regiment today

- A vibrant and cohesive force within both Essex and Kent counties.
- Overseas operations often take place in areas of active conflict, advancing Canada's foreign-policy initiatives.
- Recent activity has involved domestic operations, from natural disaster relief to keeping seniors safe in a time of pandemic.

The service.

The sacrifice.

Our duty to honour it.
